Welcome to the STUD 100® Desensitizing Spray for Men website (the “Website”)

General

Pound International Ltd respects the privacy of every individual who visits our site. This Privacy Policy provides advice on the information Pound International Ltd will collect and how we will use that information. This Policy will also instruct you on what to do if you do not want your personal information collected or shared when you visit the Website. By accessing and using the Website you acknowledge that you have reviewed and consent with this Privacy Policy and that we may collect and use your personal data in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

The Website, its content and this Privacy Policy may from time to time be updated or modified without prior notice. By access to and use of the Website after such update or modification, you are bound by any such updates and or modifications.

Personally identifiable information

Pound International Ltd will not collect any personally identifiable information about you (that is, your name, address, telephone number, or email address) unless you provide it to us voluntarily (e.g. through the Contact Us page). Our web server may automatically recognise your IP address, your browser type and version.

If you do not want your personally identifiable information collected, please do not submit it to us. If you have already submitted this information and would like us to remove it from our records, please contact us at the email address or phone number listed at the bottom of this Policy. We will then delete your information from our existing files.

When you do provide us with personally identifiable information, we may use that information in the following ways, unless stated otherwise: we may store and process that information to better understand your needs and how we can improve our products and services; we may use that information to contact you; and we may provide that information to third parties in the case of adverse events, but only to monitor the safe and effective use of the product and fulfil mandatory regulatory requirements.

We may use your personal data anonymously in order for us to make conclusions and statements for both commercial (e.g. on the Website) and non-commercial (e.g. in the technical file) applications (both on and off line).

Security

We take reasonable steps in order to prevent loss, unlawful use or adaption of the personal data that you provide to us via our Website. However, you should keep in mind that no internet transmission is 100% secure or error free. Emails sent to this website may not be secure and special care should be taken when deciding what information you send to us.

Who to contact

You have the right to consult and correct your personal data. If you would like to do this, please contact info@poundinternational.net or phone 020 7935 3735. You will be asked for a written request and proof of identification.

If you have submitted personally identifiable information through the Website and would like that information deleted from our records please contact info@poundinternational.net or phone 020 7935 3735. We will then delete this information from our existing files.
